Region VII Conference Best Results for English Learners

(Supported by Title III)

Keynote Speaker:

Dr. Aida Walqui, WestEd

As Director of Teacher Professional Development at WestEd, she is responsible for collaborating with ongoing WestEd teacher professional development efforts and leading the evolution of an organizational commitment to supporting teachers throughout their careers from recruitment and preservice through induction and life-long learning. Previously, Walqui taught in the Division of Education at the University of California, Santa Cruz, and the School of Education at Stanford University, where she coordinated the Cross-Cultural, Linguistic, and Academic Development emphasis in the STEP program. She has also taught in other universities in Peru, Mexico, England, and the United States.

Keynote Speaker:

Martin Cisneros, Santa Clara County Office of Education

Mr. Cisneros is an Academic Technology Specialist at the Santa Clara Office of Education. Over the past two decades he has provided a variety of educational and instructional technology services for various community non –profits, educational institutions and business organizations. Mr. Cisneros delivers customized training and professional development on cloud computing, multiple OS platforms, mobile technologies, and social media development. In addition, he provides training to develop digitally informed technology leadership, cyber safety, and integrating technology in the Common Core State Standards. Technology plan guidance and consulting, building school/district wide website, and implementation of 21st century skills for teaching and learning in our K-12 schools are all areas that Mr. Cisneros can provide assistance and support as well.
